

Fall 2009 American Religions

Protestant Christianity

Vocabulary

orthodox

heterodox

Hebrew scriptures

New Testament

monotheism

creed

Incarnation

Chosen people

Jesus the Christ

Paul

rabbi

Messiah

Christ

redemption

Resurrection

atonement

gospels

epistles

Roman Catholic

Reformation

Wars of Religion

Martin Luther

Lutheranism (Lutheran)

William Penn

Quakers

Reformed Tradition

Presbyterianism (Presbyterian)

Church of England

Anglicanism (Anglicans)

Book of Common Prayer

Churchmen

Episcopalianism (Episcopalian)

Anabaptist

Mennonites

Amish

Radical Reformation

Puritanism (Puritan)

Congregationalism (Congregationalists)

Non-conformists

polity

denomination

non-denominational

Methodism (Methodists)

Baptist church (Baptists)

Priesthood of all believers theology

premillennialism
postmillennialism Second Coming fundamentalists
modernists
Billy Sunday
Aimee Semple McPherson
Billy Graham Prohibition liturgy
church polity Evangelical church
Evangelical Protestantism Evangelicals
feminization
industrialization
urbanization
immigration
class distinctions secularization (secular society)
professionalization
WASP
New Jerusalem
manifest destiny
perfectionism temperance benevolent societies Social Gospel movement
Pentecostal
Church of God in Christ
Assemblies of God
American exceptionalism
"City on a Hill" African Methodist Episcopal Richard Allen
Great Migration
De facto Segregation
De jure
Plessy v. Ferguson Grandfather clauses
Poll taxes
Sharecropping
Lynching
Harry Emerson Fosdick
Shailer Mathews
Walter Rauschenbusch
lower criticism
higher criticism
Social Gospel movement
The Fundamentals

Cyrus Scofield

William Jennings Bryant

J. Gresham Machen

Montgomery bus boycott

Martin Luther King

Southern Christian Leadership Conference

liberation theology